From the Vice-Chancellor's desk

Dear Recruiters,

Greetings from the RGNUL family!

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce to you the outgoing Batch of 2018. This will be the Eighth Batch to graduate from the University. I am glad that this group of highly motivated and hardworking students is now about to join the legal fraternity. They have, over the course of five gruelling years, learned to cope up with the challenges of a legal profession.

All the students are admitted through CLAT from all over the country. The rigorous selection procedure at the University ensures a high calibre of students join the institution. They are groomed and their skills refined in a holistic manner. Over the past 4 years, I have observed them in numerous extra-curricular activities, excelling in most of them especially with an apt attitude of never shirking away from challenges and responsibility. At the same time, this batch has performed exceptionally well academically as well, while maintaining a healthy enthusiasm for honing their legal skills through activities such as Researching, Mooting etc.

At RGNUL, our students receive a comprehensive education, preparing them for viewing the world in an inter-disciplinary manner, endowing them with analytical skills to critically evaluate laws and function with a high ability to perform under pressure. At the same time our University instils a deep sense of acknowledgment and awareness of the society and surrounding circumstances in which the laws operate substantiating the skills of all students in addressing complex issues.

The diverse interests of the students is reflected through their varied internship experiences, which include experiences at the top Law Firms, Senior Litigators and the higher Judiciary, Multi National Corporations and Public Sector Undertakings, Research Organisations and the Non-Governmental Organisations. This experience has given them an invaluable exposure to enter into the most competitive professional world.

I take this opportunity to invite you to the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab, Patiala to interact with the students of the Batch of 2018. I am confident they shall positively contribute to the growth of not just the Organisation they join but also the legal profession as well.

With kind regards,

Prof. (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal
Vice Chancellor

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab.

Registrar's Communique

Greetings!

I take immense pride in presenting to you the Batch of 2018. I am confident that this Batch is enabled in all respects to shoulder the challenge and complex professional responsibilities in the times to come. The effective knowledge gained by the students through rigorous academic and co-curricular activities and the constant grooming by the intellectually rich faculty members shape the students of our University to excel in even a very demanding environment. Dynamic in vision and robust in commitment, RGNUL has traversed a long path characterized by excellence in all the aspects of academics. The University constantly endeavours to fine tune its curriculum and pedagogy to match the aspirations of the profession and society by incorporating latest legal trends in the syllabus. On one hand, the subjects of contemporary relevance and global expectations have been given due space and on the other, social justice and human rights segments continue to mark their presence in academic life of this institution.

Through the years RGNUL, Punjab has nurtured numerous outstanding lawyers with an ambition to perform and succeed. The different specialisations in our curriculum especially hone lawyers capable of excelling at varied fields of law. Our course encompasses a wide panorama of subjects dealt with in depth, along with specialised papers in the fourth and fifth year of their study. Also the University is unique in its world class infrastructure and a congenial academic atmosphere allowing the students to grow as a person and a professional simultaneously. The components like research projects, moot court exercises, clinical exercises, legal aid projects and a host of cultural and literary activities on the campus always give an edge to the students. RGNUL's impressive performance on the mooting circuit at the national level has put this University at a higher pedestal.

Our 'placement' concept is envisaged keeping in mind the widest possible ambit of opportunities and an invitation is sent out to Organisations seeking hard working, motivated students. We shall also provide the recruiters with facilities to smoothly conduct their activity at the University. Lastly, I shall reiterate the positive features of the Batch of 2018 as being capably displayed in numerous co-curricular activities as well as an impeccable academic record. I am confident of their ability to work professionally in the legal fraternity, and invite you to give this Batch a chance.

I wish all the success to this talented contingent of students

Prof. G.I.S. Sandhu

Registrar

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab.

Placement Coordinator

Dear Recruiters,

With immense pleasure and pride I present to you, the exemplary Batch of 2018 which has endeavoured to set a mark of its own in the University's lineage. The students of this Batch are a unique blend of professionalism, perseverance, simplicity and dedication which is evident from the number of laurels brought by them to the institution, not only in academics but also in co-curricular activities like national and international moot court competitions; writing and debating; seminars and symposia; sports and an array of cultural and literary events. The diverse interests and background of the students are reflected in their internships which include experiences at distinguished national law firms, corporate houses, public sector undertakings, senior litigators and higher judiciary. I believe that through these internships, they have gained invaluable experience which will help them face the challenges of the competitive professional world.

An inclusive vision facilitated by numerous concerted endeavours on part of the University and the consistent grooming by the intellectually rich faculty members has shaped these students to excel in the evolving and complex global legal environment. I am convinced that these students possess the required professional acumen and established skills to handle fairly challenging positions and shall prove to be an indispensable asset to any organisation. As the placement coordinator, I cordially invite you to visit our campus and meet the young legal practitioners and evaluate their flair in legal knowledge and beyond.

I wish the graduating students the very best in all their future endeavours and all the recruiters a pleasant and rewarding experience.

With Best Regards,

Dr. Shilpa Jain

Placement Coordinator

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab.

About the University

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The University is registered with the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi under Section 2(f) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 and has been declared fit to obtain grant from the (UGC) under Section 12-B of the UGC Act, 1956 while also being registered with the Bar Council of India (BCI).

Located in the lush green corridors of Patiala, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law spreads over an area of 47 acres. The state-of-art campus boasts the best of facilities and is equipped with up to date technologies of rain water harvesting, sewage treatment plant and solar cell panels. The campus, along with thousands of planted trees, has multiple and separate hostels for both boys and girls, a modern Academic Block, Facility Area which has its own Bank and an ATM along with other shopping and leisure outlets.

“RGNUL is the jewel of Indian Law Schools both physically and intellectually.”

-Mr. Khory McCormick (Partner, Minter Ellison)

With a collection of more than 28,000 volumes and two digit online and offline subscriptions, RGNUL has one of the biggest and the best library premises at the disposal of its students. To further facilitate its research endeavours, RGNUL has established several Centers for advanced studies such as,

- Centre for Advanced Studies in Criminal Law (CASCL)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in International Humanitarian Law (CASH)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in Labour Welfare (CASLW)
- Centre for Consumer Protection Law and Advocacy (CCPLA)
- Directorate of Distance Education (DODE)
- RGNUL Institute of Competitive Examination (RICE)
- School of Agricultural Law and Economics (SALE)
- School of Social Sciences and Inter- Disciplinary Studies (SSSIS)

The role co-curricular activities play in the overall development of a student is undisputed. The faculty and student community of the university have ensured that a positive atmosphere is maintained at all times for all round development of students careers through various co-curricular activities.

The University has several student run bodies which conduct various programs and activities in order to create a vibrant culture in the college. The bodies operate in different arrays such as – Placement Committee, Moot Court Committee, Cultural Committee, Internship Committee, Legal Aid Committee, Literary and Debate Committee, Mess Committee & Sports Committee.

About the Batch of 2018

Being students of a fast emerging law University presents opportunities to engineer a new ecosystem, while it also presents interesting challenges and the batch of 2018 has endeavoured all along to take responsibilities and pave a path for themselves. They have learned copious amounts on the way, succeeding and faltering at various times, and emerging better law students for the effort.

The batch has an eclectic mix of students from all around the country, their combined cultural, regional and personal perspectives lending a healthy environment for a well ordered exchange of ideas. Since this is the eight batch of the university, they have benefited from increased stability and contributed to the further enhancement of the educational and co-curricular standards while instilling a youthful hue to every university activity, be it the efforts of the legal aid cell, or the advanced study societies or the university's entirely student edited law journal called RGNUL Student Law Review.

The batch comprises of students both academically and scholarly inclined and display enthusiasm for a wide ranging study of legal, non-legal intellectual works as well the drive for co-curricular pursuits like Moot Court competitions, debates, Mediation and Negotiation competitions, Model United Nations as well as national and international conference. Sporting and cultural event activities have also been pursued with success at various events as well.

The Batch has enormous experience by way of participation in various Moot Court competitions. The students have been the winners of 7th NLU Anti-Trust Moot Court Competition, 11th Nani Palkhivala Memorial National Tax Moot Court Competition and 1st NUALS Securities and Investment Law Moot Court Competition. The students have also represented the University in moot court competitions like Willem C Vis (East) International Commercial Arbitration Moot and Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition.

In addition to the wide exposure, the students have gained professional expertise while being associated with learned judges, noteworthy advocates, law firms, corporate houses, think tanks and non-governmental organizations. The students also have a sense of social responsibility and have been working with the University Legal Aid Clinic providing legal assistance to the needful. The Batch has had a prominent role in the functioning of the various committees of the University and has been instrumental in the organisation of various events at the University.

The Batch of 2018 has transgressed a long path towards professional competence as well contributed to the betterment of the university on this journey too. The environment created for such growth owes in large part to the facilitating attributes of the university's magnificent infrastructure, well stocked library, various electronic resources and access to databases, and most importantly a deeply encouraging and highly competent faculty which always pushes the students to pursue excellence. Our journey over these past five years has been one of great learning and we hope the potential we as a group of students hold to do good work radiates across to you too. We invite you to come interact with us and visit this University on the rise, and we all are keenly looking forward to this opportunity.

"I feel proud in introducing and recommending the batch of 2018 to its future employers. My interaction with this batch extends over a period of two years i.e. four semesters during which I have taught them Company Law, Taxation Law, Corporate Restructuring and Corporate Taxation. The batch is extremely hard working, diligent and sincere. The batch possesses unique qualities of academic excellence and various achievements in extracurricular activities. Many of them are excellent mooters and debaters. I think these are the qualities which any employer looks for in their employees. I strongly believe that the students of this batch will do wonders in all walks of life, be it employment or otherwise. Best of luck! "

Placement Procedure

THE RECRUITMENT PROCEDURE

The Placement Cell shall send invitations to the companies/ organisations with the relevant information. If the company/ organisation wish to conduct a Pre-Placement Talk, they can send a request along with their preferred dates for the same. The Placement Cell shall in consonance with the company/ organization's preference, allot dates for campus interviews. Companies are invited to come to the campus on the allotted date/s and conduct tests and/or interviews according to their recruitment process.

EASING OF COMMUNICATION

The RGNUL Placement Committee aims to streamline the placement process for both the recruiter and the participant. We advise our students to consider each opportunity as a long term commitment and to accept offers where they can make contributions over time. The placement committee understands your need to finalise business planning and encourage students to make their decisions as quickly as possible. We encourage you to stay in close contact with the RGNUL Placement Committee throughout the recruiting season and offer process so that we can ensure students are adhering to our guidelines and assisting you with all helpful information.

PLACEMENT POLICIES

At RGNUL, we want the recruitment procedure to be a smooth process. We also want to optimize your success and deliver the highest yield possible based on your offers and marketing efforts. Unless explicit permission has been provided by the Placement Committee, participants are restricted from approaching potential recruiters directly for individual placements. Companies are requested to interact either through student placement coordinators or executives of the Placement Committee.

VIDEO CONFERENCING FACILITY

Information sessions and real time interviews can be conducted using our videoconferencing facility, if a recruiter is unable to visit the campus. The company/ organisation may contact the Placement cell for more information at placements2018@rgnul.ac.in.
