

RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB

PLACEMENT BROCHURE

BATCH OF 2016

FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR'S DESK

It is a matter of great pleasure that the Sixth Batch of B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) will be graduating from Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law in May, 2016. We at RGNUL continuously strive to infuse in our students a spirit of dedication and astuteness. The students are taught to conduct an in-depth analysis in order to look for a solution to every problem. The university offers the best of infrastructure and faculty in order to facilitate the students to broaden their horizons.

The batch of 2011-2016 has shown commendable skill and sharp legal acumen, excelling in both academics and extracurricular activities. The continued quality performance of our students in various national level competitions such as moot courts, essay writing competitions, and conferences is a proof of our value addition to the contemporary legal education. In pursuance of our aims, we have designed a curriculum, which permits the students to choose from a diverse gamut of streams including Business and Intellectual Property Laws, Criminal Laws and Constitutional Laws. Such a wide array of options allows the students to excel.

Today the world is a challenging and dynamic place; I can say with full confidence and faith that the training and education our students have undergone a metamorphosis. I, therefore on behalf of RGNUL, Punjab warmly invite law firms, organizations and the like for campus recruitment so that together the firms and our students create synergies like never before. I wish the batch of 2016 all the best for their future endeavors.

With Best Regards,
Paramjit Singh Jaswal

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S DESK

excellence. It has proven itself worthy not just by displaying exemplary results in academics, but has sought a holistic personality development by attaining highest accolades in Moot Courts, Debates, Sports, Literary and Cultural events, Declamations and many other extra-curricular activities. Our students have interned with the top law firms, multinational corporations, senior advocates at the Supreme Court as well as the High Courts and numerous NGOs to equip themselves with the requisite practical skills.

We take this opportunity to introduce the Batch of 2016 to you. We are sure that you will find them as finely cut and polished diamonds. They deserve to be studded in the best of the jewels, which you will do, understandably, with finesse.

With Best Regards,
G.I.S. Sandhu

Dear Recruiters,

I am pleased to announce that the sixth batch of B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) of this University is ready to embark on their journey as legal practitioners of tomorrow in June, 2016. Every year, 120 of India's most promising legal talent is selected through the Common Law Admission Test for a unique five-year learning experience in the B.A.LL.B (Hons.). Programme. Selected students have demonstrated intellectual ability and have contributed immensely to bringing accolades and laurels to their alma mater.

The faculty and administration at RGNUL, Punjab endeavours to impart professional education and training to the students with a Bar Council recommended curriculum that is ever evolving with a choice between the three specializations of Business and Intellectual Property Laws, Constitutional Laws and Criminal Laws.

I am delighted to inform the recruiters that this batch is par

With immense pleasure I present to you, the meritorious batch of 2016. The students of this batch have not only excelled in academic and co-curricular activities but also possess with them the qualities of sincerity, punctuality and discipline which are quintessential to all remarkable legal professionals. With regular internships, the students have been given the opportunity to study the black letter law along with modern legal trends and inter - disciplinary courses.

The Batch of 2016 brings with it enthusiasm and optimism into every facet of life. These students are campus and community leaders participating in a range of student organisations like International Law Students Association, AIESEC, and various Centres of Excellence in the University itself. In addition to academics, these students have displayed remarkable merit in co-curricular activities like debating, mooting, sports and mediation that has guaranteed their holistic legal education. The batch has been pivotal in the organization of various events such as RGNUL

National Moot Court Competition, Agahi -The RGNUL Parliamentary Debate Competition, various International and National Conferences, etc. Also, they have been instrumental in the foundation and growth of societies like the RGNUL Student Law Review, Legal Aid Units, Centre for Advanced Study in Human Rights (CASIHR) and many more. I am positive that these students will prove to be an asset to any organization.

We highly value our partnership with recruiters, alumni and friends of RGNUL, Punjab and remain committed to making your recruiting experience productive and positive. I invite the recruiting organizations and graduating students to find the best match between their needs and capabilities.

With Best Regards,
Shilpa Jain

MESSAGE FROM THE PLACEMENT COORDINATOR

ABOUT RGNUL

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab was established by the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The University started functioning and spent its formative years in the heritage building of Mohindra Kothi at the Mall Road, Patiala.

RGNUL is now fully functional at its new state-of-art campus located in Sidhuwal, Patiala. Soon after its inception in 2006, it acquired the approval of Bar Council of India (BCI) and got registered with University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 2(f) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 and also received recognition under Section 12-B of the said Act. RGNUL, Punjab is a regular member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi and several other prestigious national as well as international institutions/organizations.

Located in the education hub of Punjab, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law bestows upon a rigorous and multidisciplinary legal education to the future legal professionals, scholars and public servants of the country.

The University has instituted various Centres of Advanced Study:

- Centre for Advanced Studies in Criminal Law (CASCL)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in International Humanitarian Law (CASH)
- Centre for Advanced Studies in Labour Welfare (CASLW)
- Centre for Consumer Protection Law and Advocacy (CCPLA)
- Directorate of Distance Education (DODE)
- RGNUL Institute of Competitive Examination (RICE)
- School of Agricultural Law and Economics (SALE)
- School of Social Sciences and Inter-Disciplinary Studies (SSSIS)

The School of Law of the Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), New Delhi has set up a Programme Study Centre at RGNUL. The RGNUL Legal Aid Clinic has also been established at the RGNUL Campus under the aegis of the Punjab State Legal Services Authority. Under the XI Plan Guidelines of UGC, RGNUL has established RGNUL Enabling Unit and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Additionally, RGNUL has signed MoUs with many National/International Institutes for academic and professional collaboration.

CAMPUS & LIBRARY

The New Campus at Sidhuwal is a 47.30 acres sprawling campus owing its location in the heart of greenery, endeavours to function as a Green University and adequate steps have been taken, such as installing latest technology for rain water harvesting, sewage treatment plant, solar cell panels and plantation of trees.

The Campus houses the Administrative-cum-Academic Block, a remarkable Library, an Auditorium, a Sports Complex, separate Blocks of Boys' and Girls' Hostel, a Guest House, a Community Hall, a Health Centre, Residential blocks, a Shopping Complex, Bank, Cafes, Laundry and utility services among other modern facilities. The entire campus is WiFi enabled and also has three advanced Computer Labs. The Campus is aesthetically built also keeping in mind the provision of modern amenities such as air conditioners, water coolers, etc. The campus is tailored to students, teachers and outsiders in a comfortable fashion.

The heart of education lies in the Library. A well-stocked library is an asset and a prerequisite. The RGNUL Library is student friendly and manned by automated software. Within a short span of time, the RGNUL Library has managed to acquire a collection of 28,000 volumes covering a plethora of topics covering journals, text books, reports, e-books, legal periodicals, etc. The RGNUL Library currently subscribes to 94 Law Journals and Magazines. Apart from these subscriptions it also subscribes to 14 Newspapers and online journals (SCC, Manupatra, Westlaw, EPW, Hein Online).

Co-curricular activities play an important role in the life of students, honing their skills and ensuring all round development by engaging them in activities outside the classroom. The faculty and administration at RGNUL works tirelessly to ensure a student friendly environment where the main goal of the institution is to both impart knowledge as well as ready the students for the real world experience. Staff members provide support and services to students and student organizations in order to enhance student learning and personal development.

All the activities are conducted under the aegis of the various student committees that have been constituted for this purpose. The various committees which operate in the University are :

- Cultural Committee
- Internship Committee
- Legal Aid Committee
- Literary and Debate Committee
- Mess Committee
- Moot Court Committee
- Placement Committee
- Sports Committee

THE CLASS OF 2016

The Sixth batch of Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab has formed a niche for itself and etched its name in the history of the University. The batch of 2016 represents the diversity of the nation in true spirits, with students hailing from all corners of India. This multi-cultural environment has enhanced a sense of belongingness and fraternity.

In the arena of academics, the batch exhibits immense albeit healthy competition. The students have interned at top notch firms including Amarchand Mangaldas & Co., J. Sagar Associates, Khaitan & Co., Trilegal, Luthra & Luthra, etc.; organizations such as SAARC Secretariat (Headquarters), Nepal, Asian African Legal Consultative Organization, New Delhi and various State Human Rights Commissions.

The students have also obtained hands-on experience during judicial internships with Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.J. Mukhopadhaya, Supreme Court of India and Hon'ble Mr. Justice T. S. Thakur, Supreme Court of India amongst others. They have also bagged internships with distinguished advocates including Mr. Fali S. Nariman, Senior Advocate Supreme Court of India and President Bar Association of India; Rajeev Mehra, Additional Solicitor General of India; and K.T.S. Tulsi, Senior advocate Supreme Court.

The umpteen efforts of the students have secured them internships with in-house departments of varied companies including Sahara India, Sears Holdings Corporation, Chicago, Illinois and Tata Steel Ltd.

Apart from internships, the students have also managed to gain exposure and knowledge by completing various certificate and professional courses like the prestigious Summer School at London School of Economics, Company Secretary course by The Institute of Company Secretaries of India, diplomas from Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI) and National University of Juridical Sciences, Kolkata among others. One of the students has been certified as a Civil and Commercial Mediator (licensed to practice) by the Civil Mediation Council of the United Kingdom (England, Scotland and Wales) and the State of California, USA by London ADR.

The students of this batch have a strong zeal towards betterment of the society and have thus, been a harbinger of pro-bono activities. The students have been sincerely involved with the Punjab Legal Aid Authority and have also taken the initiative of teaching and financially helping the underprivileged children of the neighboring areas. Few of our students have been actively involved in various social initiatives at the international level in association with AIESEC. The batch of 2016 has thus developed holistically and promises the global legal world, professionals ingrained with passion, ambition, sincerity, humbleness and a thirst to prove itself.

CURRICULUM

EVALUATION AND MARKS DISTRIBUTION

The evaluation system at RGNUL comprises of a rigorous system of examinations, project reports, viva-voci, seminar presentations and moot courts. At the end of every semester, each student is marked out of a total of 100 for every subject which factors in their examinations, project reports, viva-voci and seminar presentations, thereby making 600 marks the grand total of every semester.

In the first six semesters, out of the total of 100, 35 marks are for project and viva voce, 40 are for the end semester examinations, 20 are for the mid semester examinations and 5 are for class behavior and attendance.

The marking criteria is changed from the fourth year onwards to reflect the nuances of every specialization. Out of a total of 100, 80 marks are for the end semester examinations and 20 marks are for the mid semester examinations. Project Report and Moot Court is a separate paper where the project report and viva voce counts for 50 marks out of 100 and the performance in the Moot Court is the remaining 50 out of 100. The Grade Point system followed in the University is as follows:
