About RGNUL Exagium

RGNUL Exagium is an Online International Essay Writing Competition for Undergraduates, Postgraduates and Research Scholars from diverse disciplines. With an objective to test the reading, writing and analytical skills of the students, RGNUL *Exagium attempts to engage them in the reading of literary texts. The reading of such texts propels avid reader to fathom the relevance of several thematic concerns of the writer that are related to society and culture. These concerns of the writers who pen fictional and non fictional texts open new vistas of understanding for the reader. The analytical reading of these books also enables the readers to comprehend the contemporary times.

RGNUL Exagium 2020 is open to Students & Professionals. Participants can select book/s from Group A and write an analytical essay on it. Participants shall give an appropriate title to the Essay on the selected text. The essay must focus on the thematic concerns of the book/writer. Participants can also select a title from Group B for essay writing. Participants in Group B will discuss 2-3 books of the writer relevant to the title. This can also include a non-fictional text by the writer.

Essay entry must be original, logical and coherent. It should not be a summary. It should discuss the major issues/themes of the text. The analysis of the text must be supported with proper evidence and personal response. Two texts can also be selected for the essay. Participants can select either Group A or Group B/both A & B.

Note: Previous Publication, Essays on Classics ISBN 978-93-84166-32-8, is available in RGNUL Library. For a copy of the book, interested Participants can contact exagium2020@gmail.com by 17th August 2020.
