ABOUT RGNUL

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, to fulfill the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. The University acquired approval of the Bar Council of India (BCI) in July 2006.

Our vision

"Our endeavor is to serve society through reforms in legal services by way of preparing professionally competent lawyers, inquisitive researchers, able administrators, conscientious judicial officers, and above all, socially responsible citizens, who shall be wholeheartedly and continuously engaged in the process of nation-building."

In continuance to fulfill this vision and keep the essence of learning in RGNUL alive, we'll be organizing the 10th edition of the RGNUL Moot Court Competition, 2022.

RGNUL MOOT COURT COMMITTEE

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab has always envisioned serving the society through reforms in legal services by way of preparing professionally competent lawyers. The current moot was a complete reflection of the motto of our university which is 'knowledge empowers'.

Mooting is always an integral part of a law student's life, and thus, finds a very regular mention at our university. To further the mooting culture of our university and to provide the participants with a platform to showcase their advocacy, the University organizes various moot court competitions.

The RGNUL Moot Court Committee is one of the leading and most active committees here at RGNUL, the significance of the committee is immense. The committee has been known for organizing various moots and related activities aimed at promoting a positive sense for mooting culture. The committee also facilitates the allotment of various national and international moot court competitions to the teams who proudly represent RGNUL in these competitions.

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Professor (Dr.) G.S. Bajpai
Vice-Chancellor RGNUL, Punjab

Foreword

Moot Court is a compulsory component of curriculum in law schools. It is a fluid pedagogical tool that aids learning about law and judicial processes. It is an effective technique for teaching law and deepening understanding. Moot Court competitions offer academic and clinical educational opportunity to students of law. This competition critically engages students with ethical issues. It enables learners to improve their critical thinking abilities, communication skills, and confidence. It greatly enhances courtroom advocacy skills of the participants through the role-playing exercises, amplifies their knowledge of substantive principles and understanding of practical application of law. Moot Court competitions also support students by means of enhanced relation with alumni and legal community.

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab has been organising annual national Moot Court competition and providing platform to budding lawyers to showcase their advocacy skills. The distinguished panel of this annual competition include jurists and practising lawyers. Several teams from all over India have quite enthusiastically been responding to the moot propositions of the annual RGNUL Moot Court Competition.

The 10th RGNUL Moot Court Competition will provide students of law an opportunity to present their skills and teamwork.

10th RGNUL NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law's flagship moot has grown into one of the biggest in the nation. RGNUL's objective is to benefit society via legal reforms by developing competent and skilled lawyers and inquisitive researchers, and it was with this goal in mind that the seed for this Flagship moot was planted. Since the competition's inception in 2011, students from all across the country have joined us in rendering it a success. Previously, the RGNUL Moot Court Competition focused on enthralling aspects of competition law, constitutional law, and criminal law.

The RGNUL Moot Court Committee is tremendously honored to inform you that in April 2022, we will be organizing the 10th edition of RGNUL National Moot Court competition. This edition's moot proposition has been drafted to test the knowledge, research aptitude and application of law by the participants on various aspects of Criminal Law.

The moot shall be organized on-campus(offline) from the 1st-3rd of April. However, the organizers reserve the right to switch to online/virtual mode subject to COVID-19 restrictions and guidelines issued by the Government of India. The participants will be notified beforehand in case of any modification in the mode of conduction of the Competition.

The registration for the moot shall open on 4th of January, 2022. A total of 36 slots are available for the moot, meaning thereby that the registration for the moot shall take place on a first-come-first-serve basis. The interested teams are requested to get their Universities provisionally registered via a mail from the official email id of their MCC/MCA. Upon receiving the acknowledgment of the provisional registration, participants are requested to follow the procedure given in the Rules for final registration. The Registration fee for the moot is INR 6,000/-. In case the Competition is conducted in Virtual mode, the registration fees to be paid shall stand at INR 3,500/-. If such a situation arises, the remaining balance will be refunded by the organizers to the concerned teams within a reasonable period of time.

We look forward to hosting you at our event!
